

MAGNETIC ALUMINIUM SPIRIT LEVEL

The Kaspro Magnetic Spirit Level combines a tough outer shell with reliable internal components to provide fast and accurate leveling, even under tough site conditions. It features a built-in magnetic base for hands-free operation on steel surfaces, allowing users to work more efficiently without compromising safety or accuracy. Whether you're aligning structural beams, installing piping, or setting machinery, this level is built to perform.

In the demanding environments of Structural Engineering, Oil & Gas, carpentry, metal-working, and maintenance, accurate measurements are non-negotiable. The Kaspro Magnetic Spirit Level is engineered to deliver exceptional precision and durability, especially for professionals working on metallic structures. Designed with both functionality and rugged performance in mind, this tool ensures you get level and plumb readings every time — with zero guesswork.

Technical Specification:

Item Name:	Magnetic Spirit Level
Brand:	Kaspro
Material:	Aluminum frame
Vials:	Impact-resistant acrylic vials
Vial Accuracy:	±0.5 mm/m in normal position
Vial Material:	UV-resistant acrylic
Magnetic Base:	Full-length, strong magnetic strip
Magnets:	Rare-earth magnets embedded
Operating Temperature:	-20°C to +50°C
Shock Protection:	Rubberized end caps

Applications:

- Steel structure alignment
- Carpentry and Joinery
- Electrical and Plumbing Installation
- Drywall Framing
- Masonry and Construction Layout

Part Number	Sizes
KASSLM30	30cm
KASSLM40	40cm
KASSLM50	50cm
KASSLM60	60cm
KASSLM100	100cm

Key Features:

- Magnetic Base: Strong rare-earth magnets for hands-free use on metal surfaces.
- Triple Vials: Horizontal, vertical, and 45° vials for versatile leveling.
- Durable Body: Robust aluminum frame resists bending and impact.

Conclusion

The Kaspro Magnetic Spirit Level is more than just a measuring tool — it’s an essential companion for accuracy, efficiency, and quality workmanship. Whether you’re hanging industrial shelving, aligning metal frames, or working with heavy-duty machinery, this level helps eliminate errors and ensures everything is aligned perfectly.
